

INTRODUCTION: 60638 is a brownish gray breccia of variable coherence (Fig. 1). Small white clasts are scattered through the angular sample. It is a rake sample collected about 70 m west southwest of the Lunar Module.

FIGURE 1. Small scale divisions in mm.