

INTRODUCTION: 60675 is a coherent, dark gray, fine-grained impact melt with abundant vugs, vesicles and white clasts (Fig. 1). It was collected as a rake sample about 70 m west southwest of the Lunar Module. Zap pits are absent.

FIGURE 1. Small scale divisions in mm.