

INTRODUCTION: 65516 is a pale brown, extremely friable breccia probably composed of weakly lithified soil (Fig. 1). A few metal grains and plagioclase crystals can be seen macroscopically. It is a rake sample, rounded in shape and devoid of zap pits.

FIGURE 1. Aluminum cup bottom is 2 inches in diameter. S-72-43351.