

INTRODUCTION: 65909 is a coherent, white, rounded fragment (Fig. 1) which appears to lack mafic minerals and thus is probably a cataclastic anorthosite. It was taken from a soil sample collected on the inside south wall of a 20 m crater. Its surface has some zap pits and patina.

FIGURE 1.